Jonathan Mooney

Thursday, March 6, 2008

Public speaker, different and co-author of Learning Outside the Lines and author of The Short Bus, A Journey Beyond Normal

LEARNING OUTSIDE THE LINES

Mr. Mooney speaks passionately and insightfully from his own experience about learning with a child's purpose in mind—not their parents', not their teacher's, not their school's and will also talk about his new book which helps people embrace their radical differences and concludes that “normal” is a state that no one actually visits.

Rick Lavoie

Wednesday, April 16, 2008

Nationally known consultant and speaker on learning disabilities, best known for his videos “How Difficult Can This Be?: The F.A.T. City Workshop” and “When the Chips are Down” and author of It's So much Work to Be Your Friend and the Motivation Breakthrough, 6 Secrets to Turning on the Tuned-Out Child

THE MOTIVATION BREAKTHROUGH

Mr. Lavoie will speak with humor and passion about some common misconceptions of student motivation and ineffective motivational techniques and then will provide specific approaches and strategies to effectively motivate students throughout the school year.

Bob Broudo

Thursday, May 15, 2008

President and Headmaster of Landmark School, which is internationally recognized as a leader in the education of children and adolescents with language-based learning disabilities.

ALL CHILDREN CAN LEARN

Mr. Broudo will speak about specific concepts and strategies that are effective in changing educational environments to be more responsive and effective for all types of learners
