Sunday, Nov 5th: A Soldier's Heart: Healing the Warrior's Soul With Rev. Heather Janules Worship Associate: Ivan Correia

We don't often think about warfare in religious terms. And, yet, the role and spiritual experience of the warrior appears in all cultures and throughout many faith traditions.

The life's work of Dr. Edward Tick invites us to understand and minister to those with "a soldier's heart." In preparation for Veterans Day, this service will explore Tick's vision for how our nation welcomes its warriors home.

This Sunday, we share our gifts with Wild Hearts Horses for Heroes, a MA non-profit offering healing opportunities to veterans living with PTSD through horsemanship.

We're Thoreau-ing a Party!

Party
Time

3:00 PM – meet at the church for a contemplative walk led by George Woods and Lindy Brown. Dress for the weather, stormy weather cancels, but rain or shine we'll take to the Fells to experience the woods in the ways of Thoreau. The group will return before dark.

4:00 PM -6:00 PM Let's talk Thoreau. Readings, books and conversations along with light snacks are to be found in the Symmes Room, Parlor and Michelsen rooms In honor of the 200th anniversary of Henry David Thoreau's birth. In the morning worship service, we sink into Thoreau's thoughts about transcendence and the connections we can make to the first of our Unitarian Universalist sources of faith "Direct experience of that transcending mystery and wonder, affirmed in all cultures, which moves us to a renewal of the spirit and an openness to the forces which create and uphold life" Later that day, we open our doors to the greater community with a "Thoreau Reads" gathering, including a round table discussion with scholar Mike Hyde, and a Walking with Thoreau outing.

What to read? The digital collection is here <https://www.walden.org/thoreau/the-writings-of-henry-david-thoreau-the-digital-collection/> Some thoughts, applied to government and institutions, as well as to the life and freedoms of the individual are found in An Essay; On The Duty of Civil Disobedience <http://www.gutenberg.org/files/71/71-h/71-h.htm>

For guidance about Thoreau's work from a contemporary scholar and what chapters you might choose to read from Walden <https://theamericanscholar.org/reading-thoreau-at-200/#.WeijedenGM8>

And the book Walden, chapter by chapter is here <http://www.gutenberg.org/files/205/205-h/205-h.htm> Hard copy of selected chapters are available at the church.

It's time for "Much Ado about Redo"

An Evening of Thanks and Celebration:
Wednesday, November 15, 6:00 pm

Yes, Phases One and Two are done - Join us for an evening of gratitude! Team Redo invites everyone who has already made, is planning to make, or is considering making a donation in any amount to the Michelsen/Redo Fund for an evening of thanks and celebration.

If you haven't already done so, to make a donation and join in the fun, simply write a check in any amount to the Winchester Unitarian Society, note "Michelsen" or "Redo" in the memo line, and drop it in the church office.

Our evening will begin with a ribbon-cutting and unveiling of Phases One and Two of the Michelsen Redo Project. Join your Redo Team for a sampling of fine Italian cheeses, antipasto, white wine, sparkling water, and sparkling conversation. Come enjoy the elegant ambiance of the mostly renewed Michelsen room. Examine from our archives the gorgeous original hand-painted watercolor designs of the stained glass windows in our sanctuary, and architectural blueprints of the 1898 design for the church. In the final phase, we hope to restore the originals, reproduce blue prints and frame these for display in the Michelsen room. Mark your calendar: Celebratory Soiree - Wednesday, November 15, 6:00 - 7:30 pm. Please meet in the Main Street foyer for the ribbon-cutting.

Green Sanctuary News W.U.S. taking Environmental Responsibility:

State House Climate Vigil: Monday November 6 at 6 pm

After weeks of standing in the Governor's office asking that he issue an executive order halting the development of fossil fuel infrastructure in the Commonwealth, we will come together on Monday, November 6 from 6-7 pm as a coalition of leaders and organizations of faith and of non-faith in a candlelight vigil on the Statehouse steps.

This will be the opening day of the UN Climate Change Conference in Bonn, Germany (COP 23), and we will stand as people of hope that Massachusetts might take the lead on climate, even when our country will not. As we consider the intersections of climate justice, we will hear from local leaders of the movement, gather together in moments of silence, song, and hope, and pray for our leaders here in Massachusetts and abroad.

You are welcome to bring organizational signs and banners, but because this is a vigil, we do not recommend protest signs.

The campaign's participating groups include: 350 Mass, Toxics Action Center, Massachusetts Conference United Church of Christ, Unitarian Universalists, Episcopalians Caring for Creation, Elders Climate Action, Sunrise Movement, Massachusetts Sierra Club, Jewish Climate Action Network, Mothers Out Front, divestment student leaders, grassroots anti-pipeline groups, and concerned citizens. Social Action and Outreach

Why Are All the Black Kids Sitting Together in the Cafeteria? by Beverly Daniel Tatum is the topic for a community discussion hosted by our Racial Justice Team, on Sunday afternoon, November 5. All are invited for refreshments at 3:30 p.m. followed by discussion from 4:00-5:30. Come and bring your friends.

Tatum's book, first published in 1977, has been updated and is even more relevant today as it explores issues of race and racism in our country. Join the conversation whether you've read the book or not, as we touch on topics such as racial identity, how to be an ally to people of color, American values, parenting strategies, and affirmative action. Something NEW at WUS Yoga!

Sample a Restorative Yoga class on Monday, November 20th, 2017.
6:30 - 8:00 pm - Meyer Chapel
What is Restorative Yoga?

Restorative yoga is designed to relax the mind and open the body in a gentle way. Props are used in order to ensure comfort and support. If, while laying down in a spinal twist, for example, one's knees do not touch the ground, a pillow or cushion is placed under the knees to support them. Comfort is key! Restorative poses are typically held for 5-10 minutes, which is what it takes to get to a deep level of relaxation, of quieting the body, mind, and breath. It is common to fall asleep while in a restorative pose, which is part of the intention: to deeply relax the central nervous system and restore the body from everyday stress. Restorative yoga is accessible to all, even if you are overcoming an injury or a recent surgery.

We ask that everyone bring a beach towel or blanket, a mat and a pillow if you'd like.

Your previously purchased class card may be used, or pay the drop-in fee of $15. If you have not yet attended yoga this Fall and would like to attend, or have any questions, please contact our teacher, Jamie Sokolowski, Certified Kripalu Yoga Instructor.

Yoga at WUS Monday nights 6:30 - 8:00 pm

The Fall Gentle Kripalu flow yoga class continues through November 20th, the final class being the Sample Restorative Yoga class. Our Winter session begins November 27th through February 26th, 2018. We meet in the Meyer chapel from 6:30 – 8:00 pm. Each class ends with a relaxation, allowing you to pause deeply before facing the coming week. Several payment options are available: a 10-class card for $130, a 5-class card for $65 or drop-in for one class for $15. We are strongly committed to having the yoga class be an integral part of our church ministry and invite all who wish to take part to attend and offer a donation as you are able. For further information, you may contact Fritzie Nace at fritzie.nace@gmail.com.

If you are facing a time of joy, sorrow or transition in your life, our minister and the Pastoral Care Associates are available to offer a listening ear, compassionate presence and, if applicable, resources.

Our condolences are with Betty Ellis and her family with the death of her husband Emmons Ellis on October 26th. A long-time member of the choir, Emmons was part of the WUS community for the 94 years of his vibrant life. All are welcome to attend his memorial on Saturday, December 2nd at 1pm.

You may reach the Rev. Heather Janules in the office at 781.729.0949. She can also connect you with a Pastoral Care Associate or the Caring Network (providing short-term, practical support like rides and meals). To learn more about the PCAs, pick up a brochure when you are in the church.

Nov. 11 Concert in Chelmsford to benefit Homes For Our Troops

On Saturday November 11 at 7:00 pm, First Parish UU Church of Chelmsford's talented Music Director Steve Zocchi will share his gift in a benefit concert for 'Home For Our Troops'. The nonprofit organization's mission is to build and donate custom homes nationwide for severely injured post-9/11 Veterans. The latest in the First Parish Chelmsford Concert Series will include Jazz, Blues, and Inspiring Improvisations. To read more about Music Director Steve Zocchi, please click here.

Homes For Our Troops (HFOT) <https://www.hfotusa.org> is a privately funded 501(c) (3) nonprofit organization that builds and donates specially adapted custom homes nationwide for severely injured post-9/11 Veterans, to enable them to rebuild their lives. Most of these Veterans have sustained injuries including multiple limb amputations, partial or full paralysis, and/or severe traumatic brain injury (TBI). These homes restore some of the freedom and independence the Veterans sacrificed while defending our country, and enable them to focus on their family, recovery, and rebuilding their lives. Since its inception in 2004, nearly 90 cents of every dollar has gone directly to program services for Veterans. HFOT builds these homes where the Veteran chooses to live, and continues its relationship with the Veterans after home delivery to assist them with rebuilding their lives <https://www.hfotusa.org>.

A reception will follow the performance. Recommended donation is $15, $8 for children twelve and under. First Parish is located at 2 Westford Street, Chelmsford MA, 01824. Annual Transgender Day of Remembrance Vigil at First Parish Chelmsford Saturday, November 18

First Parish UU Church of Chelmsford will hold their annual vigil for International Transgender Day of Remembrance on Saturday, November 18. The vigil is organized by the Welcoming Congregation Committee of the church, as part of their commitment to being welcoming and inclusive to LGBTQ people by honoring the dates that are special to members of the LGBTQ community and advocating on issues important to them.

The event will begin with a gathering, a procession, and a brief ceremony on the Chelmsford Common.

The second part of the vigil will meet in the Chapel (next to the parking lot). The names of those killed around the world during the past year as a result of transphobia will be read. Music will be provided by the Tervos. The vigil will end with words by Renee Manning and a brief period of fellowship. There will be child care.

People are welcome to come for either or both parts of the vigil.

Speaker Renee Elaine Manning has lived in the Boston area her entire life. While beginning her 35th year in technical work, she is currently in her final year in the Masters of Divinity Program at Andover Newton Theological Seminary and is a Member in Discernment for the UCC ordination process. She brings to the table a diverse religious heritage; Catholic, Unitarian Universalist, Baptist and Congregationalist-United Church of Christ. In her free time she enjoys astronomy, model rocketry, re-enacting 8 historical characters in the local school systems and model building. Though she transitioned at the age of 50, she knew she was transgender at the age of four. She now serves as a facilitator for Merrimack Valley PFLAG, and as a Transgender and GLBIQ advocate and teaches "Trans 101" in churches, police stations and venues throughout Massachusetts.

International Transgender Day of Remembrance (TDOR) happens every November around the world. TDOR was first organized in 1999 by transgender woman and activist Gwendolyn Ann Smith to mark the murder of Rita Hester the previous year in Allston, Massachusetts. It has been held annually ever since to raise awareness about the continued violence that is directed at the transgender community. While the official date is November 20, observances are often scheduled on various dates so nearby events do not conflict with each other.

The church is located at 2 Westford Street, on the Chelmsford Common. Directions may be found at the church website: www.uuchelmsford.org/.

Thanksgiving Baskets - Week 2 Sign-up

It's that time of year again to sign up for Thanksgiving food baskets to be collected for the Council of Social Concern in Woburn. Last year we committed to 30 baskets for the council's food pantry which represented approximately $2,800 worth of food distributed to families in need in our community. Well done! With the generosity of the previous two years, we are upping our commitment this year to 35 baskets. Last week 19 people signed up to provide baskets. Only 16 more to go! Members of the Social Action and Outreach Committee will be signing up people during the social hour after the services on Nov 5th and Nov 12th. Basket drop-off will be on Sunday Nov 19th from 9:00 - 10:30 am. We will also need lifters and drivers to help with delivery of the baskets on the morning of Tuesday, November 21st. Please email Mary Saudade (msaudade@comcast.net) or call/text her at 617- 650-3763 for more information or if you'd like to help out.

Feel free to team up and share a basket. Or, if you can't commit to an entire basket (cost can range from $60-$100) please consider donating items from the Thanksgiving basket donation list posted in the Symmes Room. The council will use these food items to put together additional baskets for Thanksgiving and to distribute to their clients during the Christmas season. Please click here for the list of items needed for this effort during the months of November and December. Thank you so much for your generosity!
