

ARTICLE 5. STANDING COMMITTEE

Section 4.2 Temporary Modifications to Certain By-Law Committees

With respect to any Committee established by these By-Laws (a “By-Law Committee”) other than the Standing Committee, the Nominating and Leadership Development Committee, the Trustees of Permanent Funds and, ~~and the Employee Relations Committee, and the Social Action and Outreach Committee,~~ the Standing Committee may, upon 30 days’ advance notice to the Society, modify any aspect of such By-Law Committee, but only on a temporary basis (a “Temporary Modification”). The goal of such Temporary Modification shall be to experiment with improvements to the governance of the Society. Any such Temporary Modification shall be clearly communicated to the affected By-Law Committee and to the Society. The Society may rescind, amend or make permanent such Temporary Modification at any time. Such Temporary Modification shall only be valid for 2 years from the date it is approved by the Standing Committee, during which time the Standing Committee shall determine whether to recommend a permanent amendment of such By-Law Committee to the Society. At the end of such 2- year period, such Temporary Modification shall automatically expire and may not be reinstated by the Standing Committee.
